Living isn't just about getting through the day. It's about making the most of each moment.

At Loretto, we provide the facilities, staff and care to make that possible for our residents, and we make living at those facilities convenient and affordable.

We recognize that the decision to move an older adult into assisted living is never an easy one. But it's also one you won't face alone. Our dedicated staff ensures that the transition into one of our housing communities is easy for all loved ones involved. Our admissions team will assist with taking you through the paperwork and necessary steps on a one-on-one basis.
